About

The JFlowers INFERNO Pro Collar Shirt was designed to look like motion, energy, and fire all at once. A dark central body gives the design its focus, while the blazing graphics burst outward through the torso and sleeves in layered shades of orange and yellow. The result is bold but controlled—a high-impact look that still feels sharp and wearable instead of chaotic.

What makes INFERNO stand out is the way the flame styling is built into the structure of the shirt. The black center creates a strong visual spine, while the surrounding graphics rise and flare like heat rolling off the table lights in the middle of a pressure match. The sleeve detailing adds extra punch, giving the whole shirt a charged, full-body identity that feels intense without looking overworked.

Performance backs up the attitude. The classic fit keeps movement natural and comfortable, while the premium fabric blend gives the shirt a smooth, lightweight feel. Airflow technology works together with mesh ventilation under both arms to help maintain breathability through long sessions, league nights, or tournament weekends. INFERNO is built for players who want fiery style without sacrificing comfort.
