PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

About

RIPPER is designed for players who like their apparel to feel intense, clean, and performance-driven. The shirt combines a deep dark grey base with flowing black shadowed sections, rugged white slash details, and scattered distressed speckling that gives the whole piece a raw, battle-ready attitude. The visual movement runs diagonally across the shirt, creating a sense of motion that makes the design feel sharp and energized without becoming chaotic.

That visual edge is matched by a practical build made for real match play. The classic fit gives you a familiar, easy-wearing shape that does not feel restrictive, while mesh ventilation under both arms helps airflow move when the pressure rises. The structured pro collar, clean JFlowers branding, and smooth premium fabric blend finish the shirt with a polished athletic feel. RIPPER is a strong choice for players who want something darker, more aggressive, and confidently understated.

Design Highlights

- Dark grey performance base creates a strong, grounded look with a refined competitive edge.
- Distressed black overlays add depth and give the shirt a rugged, high-energy finish.
- Sharp white diagonal streaks cut through the design for motion, contrast, and visual impact.
- Underarm mesh ventilation helps keep the fit breathable during long practice and tournament sessions.

Why Choose the RIPPER Pro Collar Shirt

Choose RIPPER if you want a shirt that feels edgy, athletic, and easy to wear under pressure. Its grayscale palette makes it versatile, but the distressed detailing keeps it from ever looking plain. This is the kind of shirt that suits players who prefer a more serious visual identity while still wanting something memorable. RIPPER feels modern, focused, and ready for competition.

Popular FAQ

1. Is RIPPER more subtle or more aggressive in person?
It leans aggressive, but in a refined way. The darker palette keeps it controlled, while the distressed pattern and white streaks add strong visual energy.
2. Does the shirt look overly busy when worn?
No. Even with the layered graphics, the design stays balanced because the colors are tightly controlled and the diagonal movement is clean.
3. What kind of player style does RIPPER suit best?
It is a great match for players who like dark performance gear, modern contrast, and apparel that feels focused rather than flashy.
4. Is the design only on the front?
No. RIPPER carries its distressed, high-motion styling across the full shirt, helping the look stay consistent from every angle.
